

Half-Page Notes

Strategy A:

-Fold your paper in half vertically.

-As you read, take notes on the left side of the page using words or phrases about significant points in the reading.

-During class discussions, add notes/points made about significant information in the reading.

Reading Notes	Class Discussion Notes

Strategy B:

-Divide your paper in half vertically.

-List Main Ideas from your reading on the left side of the page.

-List the Supporting Details on the right side of the page.

Main Idea	Details
1.	- - -
2.	- - -
3.	- - -

Strategy C:

- Divide your paper in half vertically.
- On the left side of the page, list facts or text excerpts related to a specific topic.
- On the right side of the page, write your inferences or response to each fact or text excerpt.
- In the bottom space, what generalizations can you make based on the information in the above boxes.

Facts (or Text)	Inferences (or Response)
Generalizations	